Who can make a referral?

Anyone may refer a woman, including family members, pastors, case managers, probation or court contacts, and treatment providers. Email the home to discuss next steps. Expect a referral response within 48 hours.

Program fit & application review

Women must be at least 18. Children do not reside at the home. GAP House does not accept sex offenders. Staff reviews each application, conducts a phone and/or in-person interview, and discusses health, medication, legal history and daily-life questions privately. After approval, staff arranges a move-in date. Expect an application response in 24-48 hours; ask staff about current capacity and timing.

Application fee & payment

The $100 application/intake fee is due at application. Venmo, check and cash are accepted; ask staff for exact payment instructions. There are no recurring program, room/board or transportation fees. Payment does not guarantee admission.

Prepare for the next step

Review the entrance application at gaphouse.org/apply. Staff will confirm how to provide the application and required documents. This handout is not an application or a promise of placement. GAP House is not a licensed medical facility or licensed substance-use treatment center.
